

Galileo eLearning

Web-based learning management system

Galileo eLearning is a self-paced, online learning facility which provides engaging interactive learning, practice and online assessment. The training is set out in comprehensive modules which are frequently updated to give you the latest in Galileo GDS training. This robust, web-based learning resource can be accessed anytime, anywhere, at your convenience. No downloads, no disks, no hassle!

Galileo eLearning is used around the globe

Galileo subscribers have been using eLearning since its inception in 2006 and it has proven to be a successful training platform for new agency starters, consultants moving from another GDS and those with experience who wish to expand or refresh their GDS skills.

eLearning modules are available in 6 different languages and currently accessed by over 6,000 users worldwide. In Australia & New Zealand alone we have over 400 active users, who together, complete around 1000 modules per month. Travelport considers Galileo eLearning as one of its most important training delivery methods for its subscribers and has staff dedicated to improving and revising its content on an on-going basis.

Galileo eLearning Curriculum

Whilst Galileo eLearning is self-paced, it is estimated that most modules take approximately 40 minutes to complete. The current curriculum represents an estimated 22 hours of online content. The system bookmarks students progress preventing unnecessary repetition.

What our customers are saying about eLearning

"I found Galileo eLearning efficient, convenient and user friendly. A good alternative to classroom training..."

Fiona Wilson, Globetrotters WA

Fiona is one of 23 Globetrotters consultants to have trained via eLearning. As a new consultant, Fiona was able to complete 18 eLearning modules and the Professional Assessment in the first two weeks of her employment during office hours and at home.

"Galileo eLearning ensures our TAFE students finish their studies ready for employment, with the convenience of this brilliant training tool. What they don't complete in class, they can finish at their convenience. The Galileo certificates they receive guarantee they are up to date with industry standards and GDS best practice."

Cathy Moir, Travel & Tourism Teacher, Loftus TAFE

Cathy has piloted eLearning modules in the classroom, using it as a complimentary training technology alongside Galileo Desktop live system access. Her students, predominately Generation Y age band, have responded well to this new technology as part of their learning experience.
