

Hotelzon announces expansion into Ireland

22 December 2014

Hotelzon, a leading hotel distribution technology provider for the B2B travel industry, has today announced it is establishing new operations in Ireland; this latest market entry follows recent news that the Hotelzon network had been extended into Denmark, France and Poland and forms part of Travelport's ongoing expansion plans for the business. The new Irish operations, which are based in Dublin, will be headed up by local Sales Manager, Adrian Fitzgerald.

Jani Kaskinen, CEO of Hotelzon commented: "I am delighted that someone of Adrian's calibre, who has a proved track record in delivering results for his customer, is joining Hotelzon's expanding international sales team."

The expansion comes just six months after Travelport, a leading Travel Commerce Platform providing distribution, technology, payment and other solutions for the $7 trillion global travel and tourism industry, acquired Hotelzon, forming part of Travelport's ongoing strategy to redefine travel commerce, with a particular focus on growing in both the hotel and corporate travel space.

Niklas Andréen, Travelport's GVP Global Hotel, Car and digital media solutions commented: "I believe Hotelzon's successful expansion into Ireland is invaluable for the continuation of driving the strategic development of both Travelport and Hotelzon. It is an exciting time for us and I look forward to the new opportunities this will bring."

Hotelzon will continue its expansion over the coming months by recruiting a further sales teams in Germany, Portugal, Belgium, and Norway.
