

Travelport Worldwide Limited Announces Halt in Share Transfers

11 September 2014

Travelport Worldwide Limited, ("Travelport" or "the Company") today announced that consistent with the Company's registration rights agreement and certain agreements entered into with current holders of the Company's common shares, the Company will not process transfers of its common shares for pre-IPO shareholders on its books and records beginning on Friday, September 12, 2014 and through 180 days after the pricing of its initial public offering. This halt on transfers is subject to the exceptions set forth in the lock-up agreement to be distributed to shareholders and applies to current holders of our common shares including holders of 5% or more of our outstanding common shares.

This halt in transfers does not apply to common shares purchased in the Company's initial public offering or acquired in the market on the New York Stock Exchange.

The Company issued another press release today regarding its initial public offering.

About Travelport

Travelport is the technology company which makes the experience of buying and managing travel continually better. It operates a travel commerce platform providing distribution, technology, payment and other solutions for the global travel and tourism industry. The company facilitates travel commerce by connecting the world's leading travel providers with online and offline travel buyers in a proprietary business-to-business (B2B) travel platform.

Travelport has a leading position in airline merchandising, hotel content and distribution, car rental, mobile commerce and B2B payment solutions. The company also provides IT services to airlines, such as shopping, ticketing, departure control and other solutions. With net revenue of over $2.5 billion in 2018, Travelport is headquartered in Langley, U.K., has over 3,700 employees and is represented in approximately 180 countries and territories.

Media Contacts

Kate Aldridge
VP Corporate Communications
e: kate.aldridge@travelport.com
t: +44 (0)1753 288720
m: +44 (0)7921698757

