

Philippines' Skyreign Travel and Tour signs agreement with Travelport

29 January 2015

Travelport, a leading Travel Commerce Platform providing distribution, technology, payment and other solutions for the $7 trillion global travel and tourism industry, today announces a new multi-year agreement with Philippine-based Skyreign Travel and Tour. Under this new agreement, the agency will now be transacting all of its international air bookings through Travelport's Travel Commerce Platform.

Formed in 2004, Skyreign Travel and Tour has grown to become the leading labour travel agency in the region. According to the latest study by the Philippine Statistics Authority, the number of Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs) who worked abroad in 2013 was estimated at 2.29 million<sup>[1]</sup>, a strong demographic that contributes increasing demand for international bookings.

Skyreign Travel and Tour has completed its migration on to Travelport's Travel Commerce Platform, where its agents have access to unparalleled travel content delivered via industry-leading technology to drive productivity and business growth across the board.

"We are delighted to be using Travelport's Travel Commerce Platform for our international bookings," said Mario N. Salamat, President and General Manager of Skyreign Travel and Tour. "We have already seen improvements in efficiency made possible through the Travelport Smartpoint agency desktop, and look forward to further growing our business with their innovative technology."

Further commenting on this agreement, Carole Oh, Travelport's Commercial Director for Philippines, Malaysia and Singapore, said: "Our team has already been working closely with Skyreign Travel and Tour for quite some time to align with their growth strategy and ensure a smooth transition to Travelport. I am very pleased that they are happy with the result, and look forward to supporting them in the long run."
