

Travelport Hotelzon launches mobile app for business travellers

7 October 2015

Travelport Hotelzon, a leading hotel distribution technology provider for the B2B travel industry, has released a mobile app designed to help both travel agents and business travellers manage corporate hotel bookings directly from their smartphones. The app is a mobile version of the popular hotelzon.com site, a hotel booking solution which offers corporate travellers an extensive choice of both chain and independent hotel properties. It is immediately available for download.

As well as offering Travelport Hotelzon's corporate customers the possibility of searching the entire hotelzon.com hotel inventory, ranging from global chains to unique independent properties worldwide, and totalling over 250,000 hotel choices, customers using the app can also access their company preferences and negotiated rates, making the booking process fast and simple whilst enforcing travel policy. The hotelzon.com app is available for download on Android, iOS and Windows Phone devices free of charge.

Key features of the app include:

- Over 250,000 hotels worldwide
- Best available rates, including privately negotiated corporate rates
- Integrated traveller profiles
- Fast and secure hotel booking functionality

Mathias Andersson, Chief Operating Officer at Travelport Hotelzon, commented: “Travelport is committed to leading the way in travel mobile commerce and Travelport Hotelzon is no exception. We absolutely wanted to deliver a user-friendly and practical app for our busy corporate traveller customers as well as the agents who serve them. It is indisputable that today’s ever-connected business traveller needs to be able to manage their business travel on the go and clearly their mobile devices must support this need.”
