

Travelport announces contract renewal with Schiphol Travel International

30 January 2015

Travelport, a leading Travel Commerce Platform providing distribution, technology, payment and other solutions for the $7 trillion global travel and tourism industry, has today announced a multi-year contract renewal with Schiphol Travel International.

Travelport has worked in partnership with Schiphol Travel International since 2000 and provides the company with both on and offline services. Schiphol Travel International is a travel management company specialising in providing professional services to medium and large multinational companies and is based in the Netherlands and the United Kingdom. It has been named as one of the fastest growing business chains in the Netherlands over the past three years.

The renewal allows Schiphol Travel International to continue to have access to Travelport's unsurpassed travel content inventory, which includes fares and now ancillaries from the world's leading network and low cost carriers and over 600,000 hotel properties (of which 500,000 are independent hotel properties), as well as its industry leading merchandising and desktop technology.

Daan Lenderink, Director at Schiphol Travel International, said: "We are pleased to extend our agreement with Travelport as providers of consistently superior and innovative technology solutions which enable us to deliver an exceptional service to our customers. We feel that in our collaboration with Travelport we more effectively meet the needs of our business."

Marco van Ieperen, Benelux General Manager at Travelport, said: "We are delighted that Schiphol Travel International has extended its partnership with Travelport. We look forward to continue working together over the coming years, by supporting their evolving needs as a modern travel management company operating in a highly competitive environment."

About Travelport

Travelport is the technology company which makes the experience of buying and managing travel continually better.
