

Travelport and Marine Tours announce new multi-year renewal agreement

17 March 2016

Travelport (NYSE:TVPT), a leading Travel Commerce Platform, has announced a new multi-year renewal agreement with Marine Tours, one of the largest travel management companies in Greece, specialising in corporate travel.

Established in 1980, Marine Tours provides high-level travel services both on a local and global basis. The company has presence in many major Greek cities and offers services in marine and offshore travel, corporate travel, MICE and leisure travel.

As part of the agreement, Marine Tours will utilise Travelport's Travel Commerce Platform to process its travel bookings, providing them with access to Travelport's unrivalled travel content inventory. This includes fares and ancillaries from the world's leading airlines and over 650,000 hotel properties, including 550,000 independents. Marine Tours will also utilise Travelport Smartpoint, the industry-leading point of sale technology for travel agencies.

Konstantinos Oikonomou, CEO of Marine Tours, said: "We have recognised the value of Travelport's Travel Commerce Platform and look forward to working together to meet the needs of our customers. We are pleased that we can rely on Travelport to provide us with the technology to grow our business as well as provide an exceptional service."

Leonidas Zotos, Country Manager for Greece at Travelport, added: "We are very pleased to have renewed this agreement with Marine Tours to continue our long-standing relationship. Marine Tours is undoubtedly one of the most renowned travel industry players in Greece and we are glad the company has recognised the value we provide to its business to help them deliver the best service possible to its customers.”
