

Loganair uses Travelport's powerful platform to enhance its global bookings - including to its unique beach landing

17 August 2017

Travelport (NYSE: TVPT), a leading Travel Commerce Platform, today announced a new multiyear global content distribution agreement with Loganair, a Scottish regional airline. Loganair flies to around 40 destinations across the UK, Republic of Ireland and Norway, including Loganair's famed operation of the world's only scheduled commercial service using a beach at Barra Airport in Scotland.

Under the agreement, Loganair will now promote its full inventory of branded content and ancillaries to Travelport-connected agencies in 180 countries. Loganair also takes advantage of Travelport's next generation of merchandising and technology, Travelport Rich Content and Branding to differentiate the airline and create new revenue opportunities. The groundbreaking merchandizing solution currently used by approximately 230 network and low cost carriers worldwide, maximizes the potential for airlines to stand out from the competition and enable agents to personalize offerings based on content.

Kay Ryan, Commercial Director at Loganair said: "The signing of this agreement and partnership with Travelport strategically coincides with a new era of advanced operations for Loganair. To that end, Travelport's innovative technology and solutions will greatly support our business to optimize its value proposition, maximize growth and strengthen its brand name in the United Kingdom and overseas."

Philip Saunders, Vice President, Air Commerce, Europe Middle East & Africa at Travelport commented: "The inauguration of our collaboration with Loganair highlights how more and more airlines see the value that Travelport's unique technology brings to their businesses. Travelport Rich Content and Branding has now established itself within the European and international market, and we're delighted that Loganair will benefit from its great merchandizing capabilities."

About Loganair

Loganair is a Scottish regional airline, serving approximately 40 destinations across the UK, Republic of Ireland and Norway. Founded in 1962 in Glasgow, it has flown under franchise agreements with both British Airways and Flybe, but will fly under its own brand from 1st September 2017. The airline carries a diverse mix of customers across its route network from business to leisure to visiting friends and family. It also provides exceptional connectivity beyond the United Kingdom through its hubs at Glasgow, Edinburgh and Manchester. Loganair has a fleet of 28 aircraft and operates five different types to meet the varied requirements of regional flying within the UK. The Saab 340, Dornier 328 and Saab 2000.

About Travelport

Travelport is the technology company which makes the experience of buying and managing travel continually better. It operates a travel commerce platform providing distribution, technology, payment and other solutions for the global travel and tourism industry. The company facilitates travel commerce by connecting the world's leading travel providers with online and offline travel buyers in a proprietary business-to-business (B2B) travel platform.

Travelport has a leading position in airline merchandising, hotel content and distribution, car rental, mobile commerce and B2B payment solutions. The company also provides IT services to airlines, such as shopping, ticketing, departure control and other solutions. With net revenue of over $2.5 billion in 2018, Travelport is headquartered in Langley, U.K., has over 3,700 employees and is represented in approximately 180 countries and territories.

Media Contacts

Chris Boba
Corporate Communications Manager, EMEA
Tel: +44 (0) 1753 288 691
Email: chris.boba@travelport.com

Maria Stameni
PR & Corporate Communications Executive, EMEA
T: +44 (0) 1753 288 119
Maria.Stameni@travelport.com

© 2019 Travelport

Events | Investor Center - Archive

Privacy policy | Terms and conditions | Code of conduct | Business partner | Cookies | Modern slavery act