

Sudanese travel agencies connect to a greater choice of travel content

19 July 2017

Travelport (NYSE: TVPT), a leading Travel Commerce Platform, today announced a new agreement with Euroafrica Services Ltd., in the Republic of Sudan which will give over 500 local agents access to a global choice of airlines, hotels, train and car travel.

Travelport's content includes fares and ancillaries from 400 airlines, including leading network and low cost carriers. It provides all the necessary tools for flight and accommodation bookings, including reservations, fare quotes and ticketing. Connected agents can search beyond rate and availability and respond quickly to customers' personalized needs so as to provide the rich and integrated travel experience that the connected traveller of today demands.

Liban Warsame, CEO of Euroafrica Services Ltd., commented: "We look forward to introducing this innovative way of connecting a world of travel choice to the Sudanese agents' community to grow their online and offline travel business. Travelport's unrivalled content will help agents to drive their performance and allow them to offer customers a broader range of content more efficiently."

Rabih Saab, President & Managing Director, EMEA & South Asia, Travelport, added: "We are delighted to be working with Euroafrica Services Ltd. and I am confident our partnership will help drive Sudanese travel agents' businesses even further. Travelport's presence in Sudan means wider choice of travel content to travellers and greater chance to satisfy those who are looking for unique and personalised journeys."
