

Travelport and Al Hashim Travel sign a new, exclusive long term agreement

11 January 2017

Travelport (NYSE: TVPT), a leading Travel Commerce Platform and Al Hashim Travel have today announced a new, exclusive, long term agreement. Al Hashim Travel is located in the Eastern province of Saudi Arabia, with 10 branches in the region. The agency is also set to expand across in Saudi Arabia in 2017.

The agreement with Travelport will see Al Hashim Travel benefit from the industry leading merchandising and desktop technology, Travelport Smartpoint. Significantly improving the selling experience for travel agents, Travelport Smartpoint has truly transformed how travel agents work, allowing them to not only sell airline tickets, but also the branded fares and ancillaries of over 400 of the world's leading airlines, including network and low cost carriers. Additionally, over 650,000 unique hotel properties and 36,000 car rental locations are available through Travelport's Travel Commerce Platform.

Commenting on the new agreement, Abbas AlSaleh, Chief Executive Officer at Al Hashim Travel said: "This exclusive deal with Travelport provides a great opportunity for our business to advance our operations. We strongly believe that Travelport's pioneering technology will support our business to work smarter, grow revenues and enhance our online presence."

Mr. Asgar Khan, General Manager at Al Hashim Travel said: "Travellers are increasingly expecting a more personalised travel experience. They want more choice and flexibility when they book. Travelport's technology is cutting edge in enabling us to meet and exceed our customers' expectations around new travel trends."

Ibrahim ElMohandes, Country Manager at Travelport Saudi Arabia, said: “We are delighted that Al Hashim Travel, a leading travel agent in Saudi Arabia, has seen the value in our Travel Commerce Platform. Our innovative technology solutions will not only help them to boost their online presence and grow sales but also increase their brand awareness both within the Kingdom and internationally.”
