

Travelport and Schiphol Travel International announce new multi-year partnership

6 April 2017

Travelport (NYSE:TVPT), a leading Travel Commerce Platform and Schiphol Travel International have announced a new long term agreement to continue to connect to Travelport’s unrivalled choice of global travel content. Long-time Travelport customer and one of the largest independent Travel Management Companies in the Netherlands and the United Kingdom, Schiphol Travel International specialises in providing professional services to medium and large multinational companies.

Celebrating 17 years of partnership with Travelport, Schiphol Travel International will continue to access Travelport’s extensive travel content – including the branded fares and ancillaries from over 400 of the world’s leading airlines and low cost carriers and a choice of over 650,000 hotels. Furthermore, Travelport’s high performance search and booking technology allows Schiphol Travel International agents to search beyond rate and availability to book travel smarter and increase revenues all within their preferred workflows and without having to spend time accessing the websites of numerous travel providers.

Daan Lenderink, Managing Director of Schiphol Travel International, said: “This new agreement demonstrates our confidence in the innovative technology solutions offered by Travelport and provides us with access to its open platform, extensive travel content and unique merchandizing solutions. This in turn enables us to develop our next generation tools to help deliver an exceptional and personalized service to our customers.”

Erik van Markus, Country Manager Netherlands at Travelport, added: “We’re delighted that Schiphol Travel International has chosen Travelport again and our teams are looking forward to working closely with them to support their evolving needs as a modern travel management company operating in a highly competitive environment. To maintain their leadership in their field, Schiphol Travel International needs access to both extensive global travel choice as well as the very best search and booking technology and this has remained our focus, and an area in which we have continued to invest in and lead in.”
