

Travelport and UOB Travel Planners renew long-term partnership

6 July 2017

UOB to pioneer Travelport Locomote tool in Asia

Travelport (NYSE: TVPT), a leading Travel Commerce Platform, and UOB Travel Planners, one of Singapore's largest local corporate travel agencies, are pleased to announce a renewed long-term partnership. This agreement allows UOB Travel Planners continued access to Travelport's unrivalled choice of travel content.

UOB Travel Planners will continue the use of Travelport's industry leading point of sale solution, Travelport Smartpoint, benefitting from intelligent, fast and accurate searching and booking which can be personalised and tailored for their customers.

As part of the agreement, UOB will also be the pilot corporate client in Asia adopting the corporate booking tool Travelport Locomote. This allows UOB's corporate clients to seamlessly plan, approve and book travel while enabling duty of care and traveler safety, all from one place.

Taking the lead from the continued rise of mobile travel bookings in Asia, Travelport will be supporting UOB Travel Planners in the development of its mobile app. Travelport's Universal API makes it easier for the app users to connect to in-house agency systems and access the widest choice of content, providing the rich, open and integrated travel experience that connected travellers of today demand.

"It has been a fulfilling partnership with Travelport, these past years and we are glad to continue this partnership. This agreement will give us the added boost we need to remain as one of the leading local TMCs. We look forward to achieving more commercial success with Travelport,” commented Steven Ler, General Manager, Head of Travel, UOB Travel Planners.

Martin Herbert, Managing Director Asia for Travelport, added “We are delighted that UOB Travel Planners has chosen to renew this agreement with us. To maintain their leadership in the competitive landscape of corporate travel, UOB Travel Planners needs continued access to extensive global travel choices and the best booking technology to deliver a differentiated and personalized booking and customer care experience. This has always been Travelport’s focus and an area which we have continued investing in. Our team looks forward to continuing this strong partnership and help UOB Travel Planners grow its business and brand even further.”
