With the US business growing rapidly, the agreement sees Audley Travel's expert travel specialists across all their offices adopt Travelport's industry leading point of sale tool, Travelport Smartpoint, to compare and select flights, work smarter and increase revenues.

Travelport's technology empowers Audley Travel specialists to search beyond rate and availability and quickly respond to customers' personalized needs to increase attachment rates and provide tailor-made trips down to the finest detail.

Ian Simkins, Chief Executive Officer at Audley Travel said: "To achieve our five-year IT strategy, one of our core business objectives was to provide our destination specialists with a single global platform for their air bookings and this new chapter in our long-standing relationship with Travelport is fantastic news. Travelport's industry-leading technology will enable our specialists to benefit from intelligent, fast and accurate searching beyond just rate and availability when creating trips for our discerning customers."

Paul Broughton, Regional Managing Director of UK and Ireland at Travelport commented: "Audley is a key player in tailor-made travel in the UK, and continues to deliver a differentiated and personalised experience. Travelport's air merchandising platform gives Audley the ability to draw in content from over 400 airlines and increase attachment rates. So, we are delighted to continue and expand our collaboration with Audley Travel."
