

Travelport extends car rental leadership with SurPrice Car Rentals partnership

25 September 2017

Travelport (NYSE: TVPT), a leading travel commerce platform, and SurPrice Car Rentals have today announced a partnership to offer vehicle bookings in approximately twenty European countries and Morocco.

Travelport-connected agencies currently manage over 91 million car rental days annually sourced from a variety of global suppliers including regional companies such as SurPrice. Travelport's car rental portfolio helps agents to upsell and increase revenues by attaching more car bookings per airline tickets. Via its Smartpoint tool, uAPI or on mobile, Travelport-connected agencies have a one-stop-shop for their global car supply and ground transportation needs.

Nikos Paspalakis, Managing Director at SurPrice Car Rentals, said: "We're delighted for signing our inaugural agreement with Travelport. We are confident that this collaboration will strongly increase our distribution capabilities and provide additional opportunities to increase our customer base while empowering Travelport-connected agents to differentiate their car content offerings in Greece and across Europe."

Niklas Andreen, Senior Vice President and Managing Director, Global Hospitality at Travelport, commented: "Being able to offer additional car content choices to our customers, through SurPrice Car Rentals is fantastic news. The variety of services and array of vehicles they offer, further enriches Travelport's unrivalled choice of global content, giving our customers the power to create and sell more personalized travel experiences."
